WHY SPONSOR US?

Dear Sponsor,

Algorithm Horcrux is one of a kind coding contest which endeavours to combine unique thinking and problem solving ability. This contest would be a challenge for beginners and a delight for experienced coders, and it aims to be a platform for a wide range of participants to code, compete and showcase their talent.

Reach up to 500+ coders from two of the most reputed engineering colleges of the country through our website, social media, promotional videos & invitation brochures, at a time when both colleges will have internship and placement drives in full swing.

Reach out to beginner and veteran coders alike, by supporting our event and gain some of the finest minds from both colleges as regular consumers of your content.

Thank You !
